Looking forward: Artistar Jewels puts the focus on the jewelry community

The sixth edition of Artistar Jewels 2019 celebrated contemporary jewelry in all of its forms. This contest conceived by Enzo Carbone aims to shine an international spotlight on gold and jewelry creations by artists from all over the world. This year, 500 pieces were displayed in the historic rooms of Palazzo Bovara in Milan during Milan Fashion Week. The various themed sections – Avant Garde, Innovation, Precious, and Recycled – allowed the many visitors to take part in an exciting experiential journey. During the gala event on Feb. 22, prizes and other forms of recognition (including apprenticeships, training courses, interviews with important magazines, and social-media campaigns) were awarded to the artists chosen by the jury. The jury included Elisabetta Barracchia, editor-in-chief of Accessory_VogueVanityFair; Maristella Campari, a fashion journalist; Gianni De Liguoro, a founding partner and designer for De Liguoro; Ivan Perini, Fine Jewelry & Consultancy; Irina Slesareva, editor-in-chief of Jewellery Review Magazine and creative director of Scultura Line Jewellery; Guido Solari, founder and owner of Scuola Orafica Ambrosiana; Cunto Solari, director of the SOA Lab & Factory; and Liza Urla, jewelry blogger and founder of Gemologue. The 2019 edition was unique because, for the first time, agreements were made with international galleries outside of Europe. These included the Bini Gallery in Australia, the Aume Gallery in Hong Kong, and Alice Floriano in Brazil.
