THE OTHER INHABITANTS OF THE PLANET

A JOURNEY TO PANDORA

► Inspired by the all-time box office winner 'Avatar' by James Cameron,

Cirque du Soleil's new show takes audiences into the alien territory of Pandora with a mythical tale set thousands of years before the events recounted in the movie. A spectacular production, featuring cutting-edge multimedia techniques, puppetry and stagecraft buoyed by an unforgettable soundtrack.
