Artistar Jewels // 2018
Date: March 8, 2018

The fifth edition Artistar Jewels (<http://www.artistarijewels.com/>, 2018), has hosted 450 creations from artists and designers coming from all over the world. Creations were selected for their uniqueness and innovation that have been exhibited in the prestigious palace of Palazzo dei Giureconsulti (Milano, Italy) and published in the volume, published by Fausto Lupetti Editore (<http://www.faustolupettieditore.it/>), and internationally distributed.

The three winners of the Artistar Jewels 2018 Contest are the Ukrainian designer and gemologist Stanislav Drokin, the Italian art director and renowned Tiziano Andorno and the Italian goldsmith and gold working teacher Rosamaria Venetucci.

. The three winners will take part for free in the 2019 edition of the project. A special mention has been delivered by Enzo Carbone, founder of Artistar Jewels, to the young English goldsmith Katy Tromans.

Artistar Jewels is a platform born in 2012, to promote the contemporary jewels. An important showcase for affirmed artists and springboard for emerging ones. The aim is to create a sustainable network for all the creatives that take part in the project.
