

Join the Milano Jewelry Week: 3rd – 6th June 2021

4x ADMIN • 11 FEBRUARIE • EVENIMENTE EVENIMENTE INTERNATIONALE

Artistar Jewels is the international reference point for all contemporary jewelry artists and designers. The exhibition takes place in a prestigious location in the heart of Milan from 3 to 6 June 2021 during the Milano Jewelry Week.

@hongmeng_luo Hongmeng Luo, who will participate in this collective exhibition, has created this colorful collection inspired by the wonderful natural Aurora that appears only in the Arctic in winter, a rare natural phenomenon, that symbolizes luck.

Artistar Jewels is the international reference point for all contemporary jewelry artists and designers. The exhibition takes place in a prestigious location in the heart of Milan from 3 to 6 June 2021 during the Milano Jewelry Week.

The Jewelry Hub

@athena_gioielli Athena Gioielli, who will participate in this collective exhibition, has founded her entire reputation on ethics and craftsmanship, to the point of becoming a true Made in Italy excellence. Natural silver is the absolute protagonist and her jewels are timeless artifacts, dedicated to those who love making unconventional choices.

The Jewelry Hub is aimed at all the jewelry, bijoux, high and fine jewelry makers that want to have an exhibition and sales area during the Milano Jewelry Week.

Jewelry Drops

@jiaqi_hhhh Jiaqi Fu, who will participate in this collective exhibition, creates her works thinking of young people who love innovative and extravagant materials with always new designs. This is a portable, decompression jewel designed for young people who need to relieve the pressure of the urban world.

Jewelry Drops is an exhibition dedicated to jewelry in all its shapes with the participation of international artists and designers with the actual presence but also virtual of the creations, making the area dynamic and original.

Talent show

The Talent Show is the event dedicated to all international jewelry Apply now schools and academies, both public and private. Each academy participates in the exhibition by presenting the creations of its students. The theme of this edition is “Undress your fears”.

Location partner

The Milano Jewelry Week involves various commercial activities located throughout the Milan area. Art galleries, showrooms, high fashion boutiques and various kinds of activities will host international artists who will exhibit their creations in these selected locations.

Independent events

@cosmonique.gioielli CosMonique Gioielli, which will organize an independent event in its own venue, is the fusion of design and jewelery, made possible thanks to the creative understanding of Costanza Macrì and Monica Candido. Their jewels are born from research and continuous experimentation of shapes and combinations of materials, which make each jewel fascinating and original.

It is also possible to participate in Milano Jewelry Week by organizing an independent event within your own space, or in other selected locations. Brands and designers can organize exhibitions, presentations of new collections, workshops, meetings, live performances and cocktail parties.