MILAN DESIGN WEEK
2017

4 - 9
April

Now became a must of the Milan Design Week, Promotedesign.it organizes the huge expositive event Din - Design In be in the strategic location of Via Massimiano 6/ via Sbordio 9, in the Lambrate District.

As for the past editions there will be the chance to admire the ideas of more than 150 designers from all over the world with more than 600 products exhibited, from hi-tech items to creations with a high artistic and innovative features.

The Milan Design Week will start on Tuesday 4th April 2017 and it will finish on Sunday the 9th April 2017. Din-Design In will become once again the temple of the international self-produced design. Thanks the organization of the several and different initiatives, such as free workshops, editorial launches, happy hours and meetings with influential multinational corporations of the sector, the event will be one of the most important and popular ones during the Milan Design Week 2017.

Promotedesign.it has as primary goal putting in contact and attracting the interest of the design-producers and buyers and making them aware of the increasing creativity offer.

For this purpose, every year, various collateral events are created, like the Temporary Shop area in which Treneed.com and Artistarjewels.com are reconfirmed after last year's success.

Treneed.com and Artistarjewels.com are both e-commerce channels oriented to the online sale of design items and contemporary jewellery. Din – Design In if for them the opportunity of emerging from the virtual world and selling directly through the Temporary Shop available only during the Din event.
