MJW Milano Jewelry Week

Artistar JEWELS

In conjunction with Milano Jewelry Week, the great event dedicated to the jewellery world, sponsored by the City of Milan and C.N.A. Federmoda, Artistar was held in the magnificent location of Palazzo Bovara in Corso Venezia, one of the three collective exhibitions inserted at a prestigious cultural occasion which celebrated the history, tradition and innovation of the fascinating world of international jewellery. In this context, 350 exhibitors from 40 countries around the world presented more than 5000 jewels inside historical buildings, schools, ateliers, showrooms, boutiques and goldsmith studios of Milan. Collective exhibitions, vernissage, presentations of exclusive collections, exhibition events, workshops, live performances, temporary shops, award evenings and in-depth talks on the most current themes of the jewellery world, allowed visitors to discover the novelties of the sector, become acquainted with international companies and increase their know-how. Milano Jewelry Week intercepts the need to give the right emphasis on the jewellery world, seeing in Milan the perfect city to promote the avant-garde and latest trends, continuing to enhance tradition. Many brands, goldsmiths, designers and jewellery producers of the city opened their doors to the public, giving life to an Experiential Journey in 40 locations spread around the central Special events, themed exhibitions, preview collection presentations, live performances, meetings with the press, cocktail parties, and workshops were organised.

"It is an ambitious project which we launched in 2019 and, as time passes, it is establishing itself increasingly among the experts but also among the enthusiasts of this

In concomitanza con Milano Jewelry Week, la grande kermesse dedicata al mondo dei gioielli, patrocinata dal Comune di Milano e C.N.A. Federmoda, si è svolta Artistar, nella splendida location di Palazzo Bovara situato in Corso Venezia, una delle tre mostre collettive inserite in una prestigiosa occasione culturale che celebra la storia, la tradizione e l'innovazione dell'affascinante mondo del gioiello internazionale. In questo contesto 350 espositori, provenienti da 40 paesi del mondo, hanno presentato oltre 5000 gioielli all'interno di palazzi storici, scuole, atelier, showroom, boutique e laboratori di arti orafa della città meneghina. Mostre collettive, vernissage, presentazioni di collezioni esclusive, eventi espositivi, workshop, live performance, temporary shop, serata di premiazione e talk di approfondimento sui temi più attuali del mondo del gioiello, hanno permesso ai visitatori di scoprire le novità del settore, conoscere realtà internazionali e arricchire il proprio know-how. La Milano Jewelry Week ha intercettato l'esigenza di dare il giusto risalto al mondo del gioiello, vedendo in Milano la città perfetta per promuovere l'avanguardia e le nuove tendenze, continuando a valorizzare la tradizione. Molti brand, orafi, designer e produttori di gioielli del capoluogo lombardo hanno aperto le porte dei loro spazi al pubblico, dando vita a un Experiential Journey in 40 location diffuse per le vie del centro. Sono stati organizzati eventi speciali, mostre a tema, presentazioni di collezioni, anteprime, performance dal vivo, incontri con la stampa, cocktail party e workshop. È un progetto molto ambizioso che abbiamo lanciato nel 2019 e che quest'anno si sta affermando sempre di più tra gli esperti ma anche tra gli appassionati di questo settore. Il nostro obiettivo è quello di diffondere la cultura del gioiello in tutte le sue sfumature e di accompagnare i brand e gli artisti attraverso un percorso di crescita ed evoluzione" dichiara Enzo Carbone, ideatore della Milano Jewelry Week e CEO di Reed Carboni, ideatore della Milano Jewelry Week e CEO del gruppo Prodes Italia. Durante il vernissage dell'evento, su invito di Artistar Jewels, sempre nell'incantevole location di Palazzo Bovara, ha avuto luogo la sfilata degli abiti dello stilista Gianni Tolentino e Massimissa Askeur, grande simbola a livello internazionale, entrambi vincitori del Leone D'Oro al Festival di Venezia e la live performance dell'artista Rossano Ferrari, che ha presentato l'opera pittorica Mosaic Jem. Durante la settimana del gioiello sono stati festeggiati importanti anniversari a testimonianza della forza e del valore della tradizione italiana del settore. De Liguoro, la Maison icona della Fashion Jewellery, in occasione dei suoi primi 60 anni, ha organizzato una mostra esclusiva dei gioielli che hanno segnato le tappe più rappresentative della sua storia. In via Ponte Vetero al 1943 e che quest'anno ha celebrato 80 anni di attività, la MJW dedica grande attenzione ai giovani talenti e, in collaborazione con Scuola Galduz, ha organizzato il talent Show, evento dedicato a tutte le scuole e accademie che hanno esposto i gioielli degli studenti delle scuole: Aluges Contemporary Jewellery School (Brasile), Assamblage (Romania), Berna Daoi (The Jewelry
